

Consolidation?

A review of the health and fitness industry

An early evening LPF seminar to be held at:

Bevan Brittan

Wednesday 7th June 2006 6.00pm - 8.00pm

HOST: Bevan Brittan

CONTENT:

We'll be talking about the challenges facing the Health & Fitness Industry as the sector is constantly in the news with rumours of mergers, consolidation and variable trading conditions. We'll also focus on issues specifically relevant to property professionals and all those involved in the procurement, delivery, operational and maintenance process. These will include rising utility costs, health & safety issues, rent reviews, capital values and how the investment world views health club covenants.

SPEAKERS:

Neil Gillis is the Chief Executive of Esporta. Neil has overseen Esporta's emergence from a declining health and fitness business to one of the most successful fitness, health and racquets operators in the UK. Prior to joining Esporta, he was MD of Greene King, during which time he was responsible for the acquisitions of Old English Inns plc and Dalgety Taverns.

Paul Guyer is the Property Director of Esporta. Paul has overseen the disposal of Esporta's European businesses and the acquisition of new sites for UK health and racquets clubs. The latter being the future for Esporta.

Peter Moody is a Partner and Head of Bevan Brittan LLP's Leisure Group. He has over 15 years experience of advising a variety of leisure clients. He now leads a group of 25 lawyers focused on the leisure industry.
